Bradley Stoke Community School Primary Newsletter
Thursday 2nd April 2026

We've had a lovely week to end the term, finishing with a fantastic Curriculum Unleashed afternoon filled with great fun and creativity in classes. As the term closes, I've also taken a moment to reflect on my first year as Head of Primary — it has truly been a privilege to work within such a supportive and dedicated school community each day. I cannot believe a whole year has passed! I hope everyone enjoys a wonderful Easter break, including our incredible staff, who work tirelessly to give our children the very best education and primary school experience.

Maria Goodchild – Head of Primary

Year 6 visit Shepton Mallet Prison

Year 6 visited Shepton Mallet Prison to support their learning about crime and punishment.

Lunches

We are unable to swap children's lunch choices, so please ensure you discuss their choice together at home.

Drama Club

Well done to Drama Club for a fantastic performance on Matilda this week!

Easter Egg Hunt

A huge thank you to the Friends at BSCS Primary for organising a fantastic egg hunt this week. I hope everyone had fun! We raised just over £300!

Miss Tucker

A big congratulations to Miss Tucker, who will be getting married over the Easter break. We wish her a wonderful day and lots of happiness for the future.

Mr Draper

Welcome back Mr Draper!
He has returned to school following his knee surgery and we are really pleased to see him.

Congratulations to our learners!
